

Jennifer Thomas
Evidence of Participation of Professional Development

National Association of Black Journalists / National Association of Hispanic Journalists
2016 Convention and Career Fair - Washington, DC - August 2016

In addition to serving as one of the broadcast mentors for the coveted NABJ National Convention, I also attend workshops where I learn about challenges facing journalists as well as technologies that can assist in my lectures and research. The professional conferences also provide camaraderie for fellow scholars and journalists. I have also taken on leadership roles at the conventions.

Read more in the Leadership Activity section