Ms. Thomas,

Thank you for speaking to my Newsmaker's Academy. You were a wealth of information on how to get national coverage for your business and on what media outlets to contact for the best results! My students took lots of notes and left class excited and ready to implement their course work to get media coverage on the local and national level.

Thanks again for sharing your insight with us. I hope you will consider being our guest again!

Sincerely,

Valorie Lawson
